INTRODUCTION.

This Catalogue comprises a large number of fine and rare coins, many of which have been in the hands of the collector for a number of years. The Roman coins should belong to one person; many of them are not named in this list, as they are being offered in lots or sets. Hadrian, Titus, Augustus, Tiberius, Minerva, Claudius, Julia, Cæsar, Etruscilla, and others, some very rare. To young collectors or beginners now is a fine chance to finish up your collections, as coins, &c., are every year becoming scarcer, and a good coin is seldom seen. Many interesting coins, foreign as well as of this country, are offered in the list; some of the colonials were found under peculiar circumstances. The demand for foreign is on the increase; some in the list are very fine. The opportunity is before you.
